

Amina Iqbal

Senior Community Investment Officer

An educator at heart, Amina is committed to community advancement, outreach, and unity-building. As a Senior Community Investment Officer, Amina engages with community and nonprofits on AAACF's community initiatives and grantmaking programs which include, Community Grantmaking, Arts and Culture, EmpowerMENT and the Ypsilanti Area Community Fund, to enrich the quality of life in Washtenaw County. Her experience in interfaith and grassroots efforts to improve education, health, and wellness in impoverished communities drives Amina's interest in creating community impact. In addition to 16 years of volunteer and professional experience, Amina has a Bachelor's from the University of Wyoming in Professional Child Development and a Master's in Education Policy and Global Studies in Education from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.